Defense requested the Court to continue the sentencing because he intends to raise two issues which may reduce Defendant's sentencing range. Government did not object, however, he stated that he has not received any filings from Defense regarding the guidelines. He further stated that he will be off-island from August 1 through the 22nd and requested that the continuance be set for sometime after his return. Defendant had no objection to the continuance. The Court continued the sentencing to August 29, 2005 at 10:30 A.M. Defense stated that he will serve and file his memorandum two weeks prior to the sentencing date.
